

TEACHER OF MFL CANDIDATE INFORMATION

Thank you for your interest The Swan School, a new free school opening in September 2019 as part of the River Learning Trust. When fully subscribed it will have approximately 1,200 students on the roll, of whom around 300 will be in the Sixth Form.

Our students will be drawn from a local catchment area and the school will be at the heart of the community. The school is opening to meet the rising demand for school places in the city.

Learning from the most successful approaches at the best schools, The Swan School will provide a uniquely challenging and structured experience in a caring and disciplined environment.

The ethos will be academic; we regard an excellent academic education as the entitlement of all young people, no matter what their background or previous experiences of learning.

Students will be inspired and nurtured, acquiring the knowledge and skills to think critically and creatively. They will learn to be confident, resilient and ambitious, and will have high expectations in terms of their own achievements and their contribution to wider society.

To achieve these aims we will draw on best practices proven elsewhere, including a longer school day and electives embedded in the curriculum.

We will also have a family lunch where students and staff eat together to promote healthy eating, caring for others, maturity and conversation skills.

Students will read and be read to and we will expect all students to work to the best of their abilities and have excellent attendance and behaviour.

The Swan School is a new build and as such will benefit from state-of-the-art facilities in Marston, Oxford, an area of natural beauty close to the centre of Oxford.

While our new building is being constructed, the first year of the school will be in purpose-built temporary accommodation adjacent to The Cherwell School South Site, a short distance from our permanent home.

This is a rare and exciting opportunity to be part of starting an exceptional comprehensive school. As a founding member of The Swan's team, you will help to build the foundations of an outstanding school from the ground up.

You will work with talented colleagues to focus on 'getting it right' with younger students so that we avoid 'fire-fighting' with year 11s later on. There will be significant leadership opportunities available as the school grows.

The successful candidate will share our ambitions for our students. You will relish the challenge of creating a new school that will be different to other comprehensive schools in the city.

You will be a highly motivated team player with leadership potential, a creative thinker who is unafraid to try new approaches, and a reflective practitioner, keen to continue learning in order to achieve the best possible outcomes for our students.

You are invited to attend an information event for prospective staff to find out more about the school and this role. Please visit theswanschool.org.uk/now-recruiting to view dates and register interest.

If you have any questions or would like to speak to me about this post, please contact the River Learning Trust central office via office@riverlearningtrust.org or on 01865 558727.

We very much look forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully

Kay Wood (Headteacher)

How will The Swan School be unique?

A Unique Curriculum

The curriculum at The Swan School will be tailored to provide a rigorous academic education. We will have the highest expectations of what students will learn and will encourage them to learn quickly and securely, while being considerate of different starting points.

We know that giving all young people access to knowledge through which they can be successful promotes social justice and ensures students have the full range of opportunities open to them in the future.

The subjects taught will be broadly traditional, but all students will be motivated to stretch students beyond what is normally expected in English, mathematics, sciences, a modern foreign language, history, geography and religious education.

Alongside this, and seen as of equal value, will be their learning in art, design and technology, and music, in which they will be taught to both appreciate the achievements of others and to develop their own creative abilities.

In all subjects, the emphasis will be on expertly-designed learning with high levels of structure. There will be absolute clarity for all on what students are expected to know and do at each point. No time will be spent on tasks that don't move students on.

This will also be evident in the provision of independent work – some of which will be completed in time at the end of the day, and some at home.

This will be purposeful, clear and useful, normally involving practice or learning by heart of material taught in lessons.

A longer day will also mean time for 'electives' every week. Electives are timetabled slots in which students choose from a range of enriching activities alongside the main curriculum. They are set to include specialised sport, music or drama, lectures and volunteering. In effect, they are a chance for students to explore existing passions and discover new ones.

Everyone at The Swan School will work hard, guided by the belief that, through effort and dedication, wonderful things can happen. Students will be expected to show commitment, self-discipline and responsibility in their studies.

As a result, they will produce work of the highest quality and learn to achieve more than they thought possible. Their teachers and support staff will show the same level of dedication and thus experience the professional joys and satisfaction brought by helping young people to learn and grow.

Co-curricular Activities

Students at The Swan School will be able to access a wide range of activities outside the curriculum, helping them to develop confidence, curiosity and resilience, and ensure their development into well-rounded young people. Students will be active participants in the school, local community and beyond. They will learn consideration and kindness, and contribute to society.

Whilst some activities will be chosen by students through the electives programme, there will be a core programme of activities that all will complete. Because we are a new school, we are able to prioritise these activities and arrange the timetable and school day so that they are an entitlement for all, not an optional extra for a few.

To give an indication of our approach, we intend that every student in Year 7 and 8 will take part in a music or drama performance, either in our own performance space, or in one of the many beautiful venues in the city.

All will be taught public speaking skills so they are able to talk with confidence in front of an audience. Furthermore, all students will learn to debate formally and will take part in competitions that will empower them to set out their views.

Sport will be compulsory and regular, with every student playing in at least one team in the first year.

Support and Inclusivity

The Swan School will be an inclusive school, ensuring that all students learn well, no matter what their previous experiences of learning, background or circumstances.

Our experience in schools confirms that all young people can learn challenging content. Therefore, our approach to teaching students with SEND or other barriers to learning will be to ensure that classroom delivery and organisation is of the highest standard, and to intervene immediately when evidence shows that a student is falling behind.

If a student demonstrates lower than expected levels of literacy or numeracy in the early years, intensive teaching will be provided to ensure that this is, where possible, remedied.

An outstanding learning support team and the extra-flexibility provided by the extended day will allow us to make sure that no student falls behind or does not make good progress.

Good schools do not give up on students, and we intend to be a great school.

Family Lunch

Students and staff will sit and eat together every day to promote healthy eating, caring for others, maturity and conversation skills.

This communal approach will help students to learn good habits, consideration for others, and how to engage in discussions with confidence. Breakfast and healthy snacks at break will also be available.

The School Buildings and Grounds

The Swan School will benefit from the most modern of facilities in new buildings in Marston. This will include state-of-the-art accommodation, equipment and technology, plus a sports hall, activities studio, drama and music rooms, specialist art, design and technology spaces and much more.

The school is situated in an area of natural beauty close to the River Cherwell. The grounds themselves are designed to be an extension of this environment, with wood-clad buildings, mature trees, natural hedgerows and wildflower areas.

Despite this rural feel, the location offers easy access to the centre of Oxford and the many opportunities for educational enrichment to be found there.

Location

The Swan's permanent site will be located in Marston, an area of natural beauty a short distance from the centre of Oxford.

The site is close to several other primary and secondary schools, with whom we will develop close and mutually beneficial working relationships.

The River Learning Trust is a multi-academy trust that is committed to working together to achieve excellence in education. RLT is responsible for a number of schools and a school-centred initial teacher training provider (SCITT).

Currently, RLT comprises five secondary schools, The Swan School in pre-opening, 12 primary schools, and the SCITT.

Another two primary schools are due to join in 2019 with other secondary schools in discussions about the possibility of joining RLT.

The schools and SCITT are united by their commitment to the principles of the Trust and a common belief in the benefits of everything that is gained by working together.

Further details about the Trust, including its history, names and location of schools, and details about the central team can be found on the RLT website: <http://riverlearningtrust.org>

The principles of the River Learning Trust are:

Everyone Learning – creating and taking opportunities that enhance lives through evidence-based practice supporting adult and pupil learning

Commitment to Excellence – striving for the best educational experience through continuous improvement

Respectful Relationships – acting with care, integrity, and fairness in all we do

As a member of staff in an RLT school you will benefit from the support, opportunities and leadership development provided by the Trust central team and colleagues in other schools.
